HERRING BOATS in ARRAN WATERS,
FROM FAIRLIE.

C.C.74676

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Herring Boats in Arran Waters. One evening in late November, 1906, there was extraordinary excitement in the estuary of the Clyde—numbers of herring boats pursued shoals of herring, forming, with the lurid background of the gorgeous winter sunset, a most beautiful sight. Seven whales also were seen up the river at the same time, and enormous catches of herring were taken.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Printed in England.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7620. "FAIRLIE."
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

CT 7712.9